Text 1: f. 1r-v

Title: Papal bull

Language(s): Latin

Incipit: According to the regulation of Archbishop Philippus Leportier of Marigny, at the time bishop of Sens and now of Cambrai, that religious houses must accept as new members those whom he nominates, he directs that the prioress and sisters of the Hospital of Mechelen accept his nominee, Margaret de Halluc, but because the prioress and sisters had never received a copy of his regulation, they ask that it be given to them, which the bishop refuses to do; Clement V orders the dean of the church of St. Mary in Antwerp to examine the situation and to come to a decision.

Notes: Blank spaces left on the document for the names of the dean of the church in Antwerp, and of the prioress of the Hospital. Signed on the reverse by Thilmann de Tungris, who also signed a document in Avignon (1311), another papal bull of Clement V (1309), and one of John XXII (1319); also signed in a contemporary hand by Walterus de Machlinia: [contemporary:] Thilmannus de tungris / [later:] 10 / [later:] Privilegium clementis pape / [later, in pencil:] 1310 /[in the outer left center, contemporary:] Walterus de machlinia.
